Section 3.2 Powers and Duties.

- A. General. For the accomplishment of its purposes, the Association shall have all the common law and statutory powers and duties of a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, except as limited or modified by the Covenants, the By-Laws or the Homeowners Association Act and corporate act and such powers as limited or modified by the provisions of Section 3.2.C below. The powers of the Association shall also be as set forth in the Covenants and By-Laws, which shall include promulgation of regulations with respect to the property in the subdivision and Association property.
- B. Powers. The Association shall have all of the powers reasonably necessary to operate the subdivision pursuant to the Covenants and By-Laws as they may hereafter be amended, including, but not limited to:
1. To make and collect annual and special assessments against members of the Association to defray the costs, expenses and losses of the members and the Association, and to use the funds in the exercise of its powers and duties.
 2. To protect, maintain, repair, replace and operate the property.
 3. To purchase insurance upon the Common Areas for the protection of the Association and its members, as required by law.
 4. To make improvements of the property in the Common Area, subject to any limitations contained in the Covenants.
 5. To reconstruct improvements after casualty.
 6. To make, amend, and enforce reasonable rules and regulations governing the use of the Common Area and Association property, inclusive of the Units, the operation of the Association, and including the frequency, time, location, notice and manner of the inspection and copying of official records.
 7. To contract for the management and maintenance of the Common Area, and to delegate any powers and duties of the Association in connection therewith except such as are specifically required by the Covenants to be exercised by the Board of Directors or the membership of the Association.
 8. To employ accountants, attorneys, architects, and other professional personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the Common Area and Association property.

- C. Limitation on Corporate Powers. The following limitations on the following powers of the Association as set forth in the corporate statute, shall apply:
1. No Directors, officers or committee members shall receive compensation for their services as Directors, officers and committee members. The foregoing shall not preclude Directors, officers and committee members from being (and who shall be) reimbursed for all actual and proper out-of-pocket expenses relating to the proper discharge of their respective duties.
 2. All funds and the title to all property acquired by the Association and their proceeds shall be held for the benefit and use of the Owners in accordance with the provisions of the Covenants, these Articles, and the By-Laws.

All powers of the Association conferred by the Covenants and By-Laws are incorporated into these Articles by reference.

- D. Duties.
1. The Association shall adopt a Rule and Regulation concerning the posting of notices of Board meetings and the annual meeting.
 2. The Association shall prepare a Question and Answer Sheet and shall update it at least annually if and as required by the Homeowners Association Act and Administrative Rules as amended from time to time.
 3. The Association shall maintain an adequate number of copies of the Association Documents and Rules and Regulations, and all amendments to the foregoing, as well as the Question and Answer Sheet referred to above, and the most recent year-end financial information on the Association property, to ensure their availability to Owners. The Association may charge its actual costs for preparing and furnishing the foregoing to those requesting same.
 4. The Association shall ensure that the following contracts shall be in writing:
 - (a) Any contract for the purchase, lease or renting of materials or equipment, which is not to be fully performed within one year from the date of execution of the contract.

- (b) Any contract, regardless of term, for the provision of services; other than contracts with employees of the Association, and contracts for attorneys and accountants services, and any other service contracts exempted from the foregoing requirement by the Homeowners Association Act or Administrative Rules as amended from time to time.
- 5. The Association shall obtain competitive bids for materials, equipment and services where required by the Homeowners Association Act and Administrative Rules as amended from time to time. This provision shall not require the Association to accept the lowest bid.
- 6. The Association shall obtain and maintain fidelity bonding as required by the Homeowners Association Act and Administrative Rules.
- 7. The Association shall keep a roster of Owners and their addresses and mortgagees and their addresses based on information supplied in writing by the Owners from time to time to the Association.

ARTICLE IV

ARTICLE VII

BY-LAWS

The By-Laws of the Association may be altered, amended or rescinded by the vote of both the Board of Directors and members of the Association in the manner provided in the By-Laws; with the vote of the Board alone permitted only if and as permitted in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VIII

AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Amendments to these Articles shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

Section 8.1. Proposal. Amendments to these Articles may be proposed by a majority of the entire membership of the Board of Directors or by written petition signed by at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the voting interests of the members of the Association. Only one co-owner of a lot need sign the petition for that lot.

Section 8.2 Procedure: Notice and Format. In the event that any amendment is proposed by the Board of Directors, then the Board may propose the amendment to be considered at the annual or a special members' meeting. In the event that any amendment was proposed by written petition of the members, then the Board shall have forty (40) days from its receipt of the petition or ten (10) days after its next regular meeting, whichever time period is greater, to certify that the proper number of owners executed the petition. Once certified, the Board shall call a meeting of the members to vote on the amendments within sixty (60) days after certification of the signatures. An amendment may be considered at the annual or a special members' meeting. The full text of any amendment to the Articles shall be included in the notice of the members' meeting of which a proposed amendment is considered by the Owners members.

Section 8.3 Vote Required. Except as otherwise provided by Florida law, or by specific provision of these Articles, these Articles may be amended by concurrence of not less than a majority of the entire membership of the Board of Directors then serving and by two-thirds (2/3) of the voting interests of all members. If the amendments were proposed by a written petition signed by the members pursuant to Section 8.1 above, then the concurrence of the Board of Directors shall not be required.

Section 8.4. Recording and Effective Date. A copy of each amendment shall be filed with the Department of State pursuant to the provisions of applicable Florida law, and a copy bearing the filing stamp of the Department of State shall be recorded in the public records of the County. The Certificate of Amendment shall, on the first page, state the book and page of the public records where the Covenants is recorded. The Certificate shall be executed by any officer with the formalities required for the recording of a deed. The amendment shall be effective upon recording in the public records of the County. Exception. As to any amendment to Article X of these Articles, this Section 8 shall not apply.

Section 8.5. Provisos. Notwithstanding any provision contained in these Articles to the contrary:

- A. An amendment to these Articles that adds, changes, or deletes a greater or lesser quorum or voting requirement must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.
- B. Article X of these Articles may be amended by the vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors, without the need for membership approval, if a statement of change of registered agent and/or office is on file with the Department of State.
- C. The Developer shall be permitted to unilaterally amend these Articles, without the approval of any Owner and the Association, so long as the Developer is in control of the Board of Directors of the Association, and thereafter, so long as the Developer owns not less than ten percent (10%) of the lots in the subdivision, no amendment to these Articles which impairs or removes any reservation, right, or privilege of the Developer or its designees shall be effective unless the Developer shall join and consent to the amendment.

ARTICLE IX

TERM

The term of the Association shall be perpetual, subject to dissolution of the Association.
